

Launch and Initial Workshop
James Lind Alliance Occupational Therapy Priority Setting Partnership
Monday, 4th March 2019, 10.30am - 3.30pm

Workshop objectives:

1. To understand the James Lind Alliance (JLA) priority setting process and Priority Setting Partnerships (PSPs)
2. To consider the purpose of the Occupational Therapy Priority Setting Partnership and what is involved
3. Begin to explore scope of the Occupational Therapy Priority Setting Partnership
4. To explore methods of engaging with occupational therapists, service users, carers and other key stakeholders
5. To discuss how to effectively communicate to all audiences
6. Collate feedback from the workshop and outline next steps

Time	Topic	Presenter
10.00am	Registration and refreshments
10.30am	Welcome and introductions Expectations of the workshop	Dr Jo Watson, Assistant Director, Education and Research, RCOT
10.45am	Introduction to the James Lind Alliance	Katherine Cowan, Senior Adviser, JLA
11.15am	The Royal College of Occupational Therapists (RCOT) perspective	Dr Jo Watson, Assistant Director, Education and Research, RCOT
11.25am	Questions and discussion	All
11:45am	Scope of the Occupational Therapy Priority Setting Partnership	Jenny Mac Donnell, Project Lead, RCOT
12.00pm	Scope - understanding the scope - discussing the scope themes - communicating the scope	Small group work
12.45pm	Feedback from group work	Katherine Cowan, Senior Adviser, JLA
1.00pm	Lunch
1.45pm	Getting involved	Ruth Unstead-Joss, Project Coordinator, RCOT
2.00pm	How to engage with occupational therapists, service users, carers and other stakeholders, particularly people from seldom heard groups.	Small group work
3.00pm	Feedback from group work	Katherine Cowan, Senior Adviser, JLA
3.15pm	Summing up and next steps	Dr Jo Watson, Assistant Director, Education and Research, RCOT